What is School Wide Positive Behaviour Support?

SWPBS is:

- A three tiered approach to prevention.
- An emphasis on instruction.
- A function—based approach.
- A broad range of systemic and individualised strategies for achieving important social and learning outcomes while preventing problem behaviour with all students. (Sugai and Horner, 2001; 2002)
- Put more simply: PBS is the redesign of environments not the redesign of individuals.