VISION FOR RECONCILIATION

Guided by the enduring wisdom of Australia's First Nations peoples, St Mary's Primary School envisions a nurturing environment where reconciliation, cultural respect, holistic learning, and community engagement flourish. We are dedicated to honoring the rich tapestry of First Nations heritage, weaving it into the educational journey of every student.

At St Mary's Primary School, inclusivity, equality and equity are the cornerstones of our educational approach where we acknowledge the diverse traditions, languages, and histories of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. We will create an inclusive and culturally responsive environment where each child's unique voice is heard and valued. By promoting empathy and social responsibility, we cultivate a sense of belonging and unity among our students.

Together with the local First Nations communities, parents, and caregivers, we will respectfully build meaningful relationships that develops collaborative opportunities that will ensure students are supported in their growth and development, laying the foundation for a bright and reconciled future.

With open hearts and open minds, we embark on this journey of reconciliation, enlightenment and growth, sowing seeds of wisdom, compassion, and empowerment in every heart that graces our halls.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

Look up, look down, look all around. From the north to the south, From the east to the west, the Land on which we stand is Yuggera Land.

Yuggera, Jagera, Ugarapul and more. Our shared heritage, a treasure to explore. In unity we celebrate the stories we share, with respect for Elders, past and present, the land, water and air. From north to south, from east to west, On Yuggera Land, we're at our best.

We remember the past, honour with grace, striving to nurture the world in life's embrace. With care for earth, our duty we see, we will be the best we can be. In Yuggera Land's embrace, we stand, united as one, hand in hand. St Mary's Primary School.

RAP ACTIONS

COMMITMENT

Care for Country

We commit to actively connecting with, and caring for, the Country/place on which our early learning service stands. This involves respectfully learning about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives, philosophies and practices about caring for Country/place, as well as physically demonstrating respect for the skies, waterways and Land on which we live and learn. We will consider First Nations perspectives as part of broader sustainability plans, policies and practices. This will reinforce the meaningful and continuous connections Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have continued to have with Country/place since time immemorial, as well as provide positive opportunities for all members of our educational community to become socially and environmentally responsible citizens who display a growing awareness of the importance of First Nations land management and sustainability.

Teachers will consider the cross-curriculum priority when developing units, lesson plans and resources in all learning areas and across all year levels.
Curriculum Planning	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures are a key, ongoing part of curriculum planning, development and evaluation across all year levels and learning areas. We will review curriculum documents to find out where we include Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures, and to what extent and where we could include Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories, cultures and contributions in the curriculum.
